Taipei Metro

Way to pay:

By EasyCard (For more details of EasyCard, please refer to P.21) or IC token (sold at the machines at all MRT stations)

Recommended App:

Find Taipei Metro (MRT) on the App store (for both IOS and Android)

MRT Operating hours:

 6:00~24:00

Taxi

The taxi in Taipei serves 24 hours, and the base fare is NT70. Nighttime service starts from 11 pm to 6 am, and the base fare costs additional NT20.

Most taxi drivers in Taiwan don't speak English, so it is better that you prepare a map or the information of the destination in Chinese beforehand. Every 7-11 (convenience store) in Taipei has dial-a-ride service. Please make sure to ask for help in the late night. The app "Easy Taxi" is convenient for dial-a-ride service as well.

Though the taxi in Taiwan is safe but it is still better to take notice of the licence number for contacting the driver in case of missing objects on taxi.

How to hire a taxi:

1. Call Taiwan taxi (Dial 55688 on your mobile phone and they have English services) http://www.taiwantaxi.com.tw/taiwantaxi/english_services.asp
2. Call at the consulting room of Zi Chiang Dorm 10: The staff will help international students to call for taxi

Where to take the bus

(1) To Gongguan or Xindian(Bus 236):

One bus stop is located in front of the Post Office (near the Main Gate)
Another one is in front of the Family Mart (near the McDonald Side Gate)

(2) To Tapei Zoo MRT station or Taipei City Hall
(Bus Green 1 or Brown 18 / 綠 1 或 棕 18)

One bus stop is in front of the Hi-Life (right beside the McDonald's side gate)
Another one is in front of the Wellcome (near Juicy Bun)

Operating hours:

Bus 236	05:00 ~ 23:00
Bus Green 1	05:45 ~ 23:30
Bus Brown 18	06:00 ~ 24:00

PS. The aboves are the three main buses to take. There are several other buses you can take near NCCU, you may find their information on the website below.
(<http://www.5284.com.tw/Dybus.aspx?Lang=En>)

Fare

The normal fare to travel by bus in Taipei is NT15 per ride, but if you pay by EasyCard as a registered student, it only costs NT 12 per ride.

Way to pay the fare

Payment on buses in Taipei is a bit tricky. You can pay by either coins (exact change) or EasyCard. However, you have to notice the red sign above the drivers' seat when boarding, which indicates UP or DOWN. The Chinese character UP means you pay when you get on. The character DOWN indicates that you pay when disembarking.

Recommended App

You may find an app called "Bus Tracker Taipei" in app stores of both Android and IOS Systems and you can find almost all the bus-related information on it.

Bus routes departing from NCCU:

Buses run for 2 directions.

1. To Gongguan or Xindian
2. To Taipei Zoo MRT station, Taipei 101 or Taipei City Hall MRT station

What is EasyCard

- (1) A "touch-and-go" IC ticketing system for the Taipei Metro, buses services, YouBike, designated car parks, stores and government agencies.
- (2) Just pass the card over the sensor area to make a transaction, avoiding hassles with finding correct change.
- (3) As value can be added to the card at any time, there is no need to repeatedly purchasing new cards.
- (4) An EasyCard can be used for years and its ultimate aim is to allow people to travel throughout Taiwan with only one card.

Where to buy one

Available at:

- EasyCard Sale & Add Value Machine in all Taipei Metro stations.
- We can also buy them at the 7-11 convenience stores!

How to add value to EasyCard

Value can be added to the EasyCard at the following locations:

- (1) Value-adding machines located at all Taipei Metro stations and some parking lot, and the value can be added in multiples of NT100.
- (2) The Information Counter at all Taipei Metro stations.
- (3) Convenient stores carrying the 「」 or 「」 logo (7-ELEVEN, FamilyMart, Hi-Life and OK Mart), and the minimum amount of value adding is NT100.

For more info of EasyCard, please visit following websites:

- <http://www.easycard.com.tw/english/index.asp>
- <http://www.easycard.com.tw/english/use/index.aspx>

Freebike

Freebike is for short-term rental in NCCU. Before you get a bike, please follow the following steps and register.

Step1-Register online-NCCU Joint Registration System(政大聯合報名系統). After registering, please make sure your registration has been completed and confirmed. (through NCCU webmail.)

Step2- Get a bike at the Campus Security Team by showing your student ID card at 12-1 pm on Thursday.

Step3- Take responsibility of your own bike and place the bike on the rack while it is not in used. Please prepare your own lock in case of loss or theft.

Step4- Return your bike at 12-1 pm on Wednesday. Users who fail to return the bikes on time(max: twice) will lose their right to rent bikes for the respective semester.

YouBike

The YouBike station around NCCU is opposite to Wellcome Supermarket.

Step1- Step 1- Use your EasyCard to authorize you as a YouBike member and to rent a bike. You can register at any station.

Step2- Before selecting a bike, please check the tire pressure, brakes and lights to confirm they are functioning properly. In case of malfunctions, please turn the seat around and select another vehicle. If the vehicle is functioning properly, then use a registered card on the sensor pad on the dock to confirm your rental.

Step3- Check the indicator light. When the green indicator light starts blinking and emits a beeping sound, you can then retrieve the vehicle.

Step4- Return the bike at any YouBike station after finishing your ride.

Office of International Cooperation (OIC)

oic@nccu.edu.tw

OIC is responsible for coordinating most international students' affairs, including course selection, visa, ARC, accommodation, insurance, and etc. To help the them better adapt to the lives in NCCU, OIC recruits a group of local students (who are known as buddies) as well as sets up several student voluntary clubs (SA, IY and IA) to assist the new-coming students via a series of activities designed for them.

For more detailed information about OIC's services, please feel free to visit us.

OIC office: 8F of Administration Building (Office hours: Monday-Friday, 08:30-12:00, 13:30-17:00)

International Association (IA)

ia.nccu@gmail.com

Students in IA help international students to adapt their lives in Taiwan and solve their school affairs.

For more information please search "NCCU IA" Facebook or to our website: <http://nccuinternational.wordpress.com/>

International Youth (IY)

The aim of IY is to help exchange students to merge with the local students. They have activities such as Taiwanese Cuisine teaching, Calligraphy teaching, etc.

Campus Caring Group (CCG)

careu@nccu.edu.tw

Campus Caring Group is a group formed by female teachers or professors' wives, which is helpful for students who want to learn Chinese. They provide one-to-one Chinese lessons and also some cultural craft activities.

For more information please head to the eighth floor in the administration building, or send us an email and we will help you out.

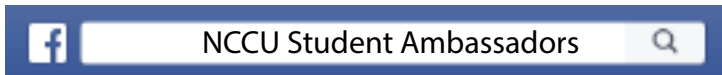

Student Ambassadors (SA)

sa@nccu.edu.tw

Student Ambassadors is a volunteer group formed by NCCU students, which is also an assistant group of OIC. Their jobs are receiving partner schools visitors and exchange students, conducting campus tours and helping exchange students to adapt their lives in NCCU.

SA holds a variety of activities for exchange students that they can interact with the local students through cultural exchange and experience of activities. The World Festival is one of the biggest activities that you can't miss, and the Field Trip is a two-day trip in Taiwan with everything full planned. As for Olympics, it is a sport competition with other international students from other universities in Taipei. Of course, SA holds other fantastic activities waiting for you to experience!

Check us out on Facebook for the latest information and don't forget to visit us during Club Fair from Sep. 27 to 29, 2016, in front of the Administration Building."
