

Accommodation

Accommodation Services is located in the Glamorgan Court Lodge at the University of Glamorgan. Tel: 00 44 1443 482044.

Accommodation Services will help you find somewhere to live and to help you with any accommodation related problems during your time here. The University can accommodate approximately 1330 students in a variety of its own Halls of Residence on and off campus.

Glamorgan Court is situated on campus and is a modern development, completed during 1994. The accommodation offers students full self-catering facilities and en-suite study bedrooms. The rooms are arranged in clusters of six study bedrooms per flat with shared kitchen and dining space. It caters for 728 residents. Prices for 08/09 are available at <http://www.glam.ac.uk/accommodation>

Neuadd Philip Evans and Neuadd Philip Squire are Halls of Residence situated on campus and provide self catering accommodation for 396 students mainly in single study bedrooms, fitted with wash hand basins. Prices for 08/09 are available at <http://www.glam.ac.uk/accommodation>

Private Accommodation Some first year students and most returning students live within the local community in properties owned by private landlords. Most of these landlords are registered with the University and their details are made available via the vacancy list produced regularly by the Accommodation Centre.

When your application to the Combined Studies Unit has been accepted, you will need to complete the Accommodation Form on line:
