Oxford: student city

We know that choosing where to go to university is a big decision and that not all students want the same thing. Luckily, Oxford has something for everyone.

1. Oxford Brookes University, Headington Campus

Located in Headington, a leafy residential suburb, our main campus is walking distance from parks and a short bus ride from the city centre and the Cowley Road.

2. South Park

Two minutes walk from our Headington Campus, this green space offers some of the best views of Oxford's beautiful skyline.

3. Cowley Road

A vibrant area with places to eat from all corners of the globe. With pubs, bars and cafes, it's a firm favourite with students.

4. O2 Academy Oxford

This Cowley Road music venue hosts headline acts, as well as club nights. Brookes Sport student nights take place here every Wednesday during semester time.

5. The Ultimate Picture Palace

Offering student discounts, this is Oxford's first independent cinema, showing everything from the latest blockbusters, to foreign language films and the classics.

6. Punting down the River Cherwell

A quintessentially Oxford experience, punting is a unique way to see the city from the river.

7. Oxford Botanic Gardens

With free entry for Oxford Brookes students, you can explore Britain's oldest botanic garden that has over 6,000 different plant species!

8. Queen's Lane Coffee House

A great place to grab a coffee or slice of cake. Opened in 1654, it's reputed to be the oldest continually working coffee house in the whole of Europe.

9. Westgate shopping centre

Find over 100 stores, a cinema, restaurants, cafes, junkyard golf, a gym and much more. There's plenty to see and do, with many places offering student discounts.

10. Modern Art Oxford

Free and open to all, this gallery showcases cutting-edge exhibitions and innovative programmes.

11. Ashmolean Museum

With free entry, this art and archaeology museum has world famous collections, including Egyptian mummies and the largest collection of Raphael drawings.

12. Natural History Museum and Pitt Rivers Museum

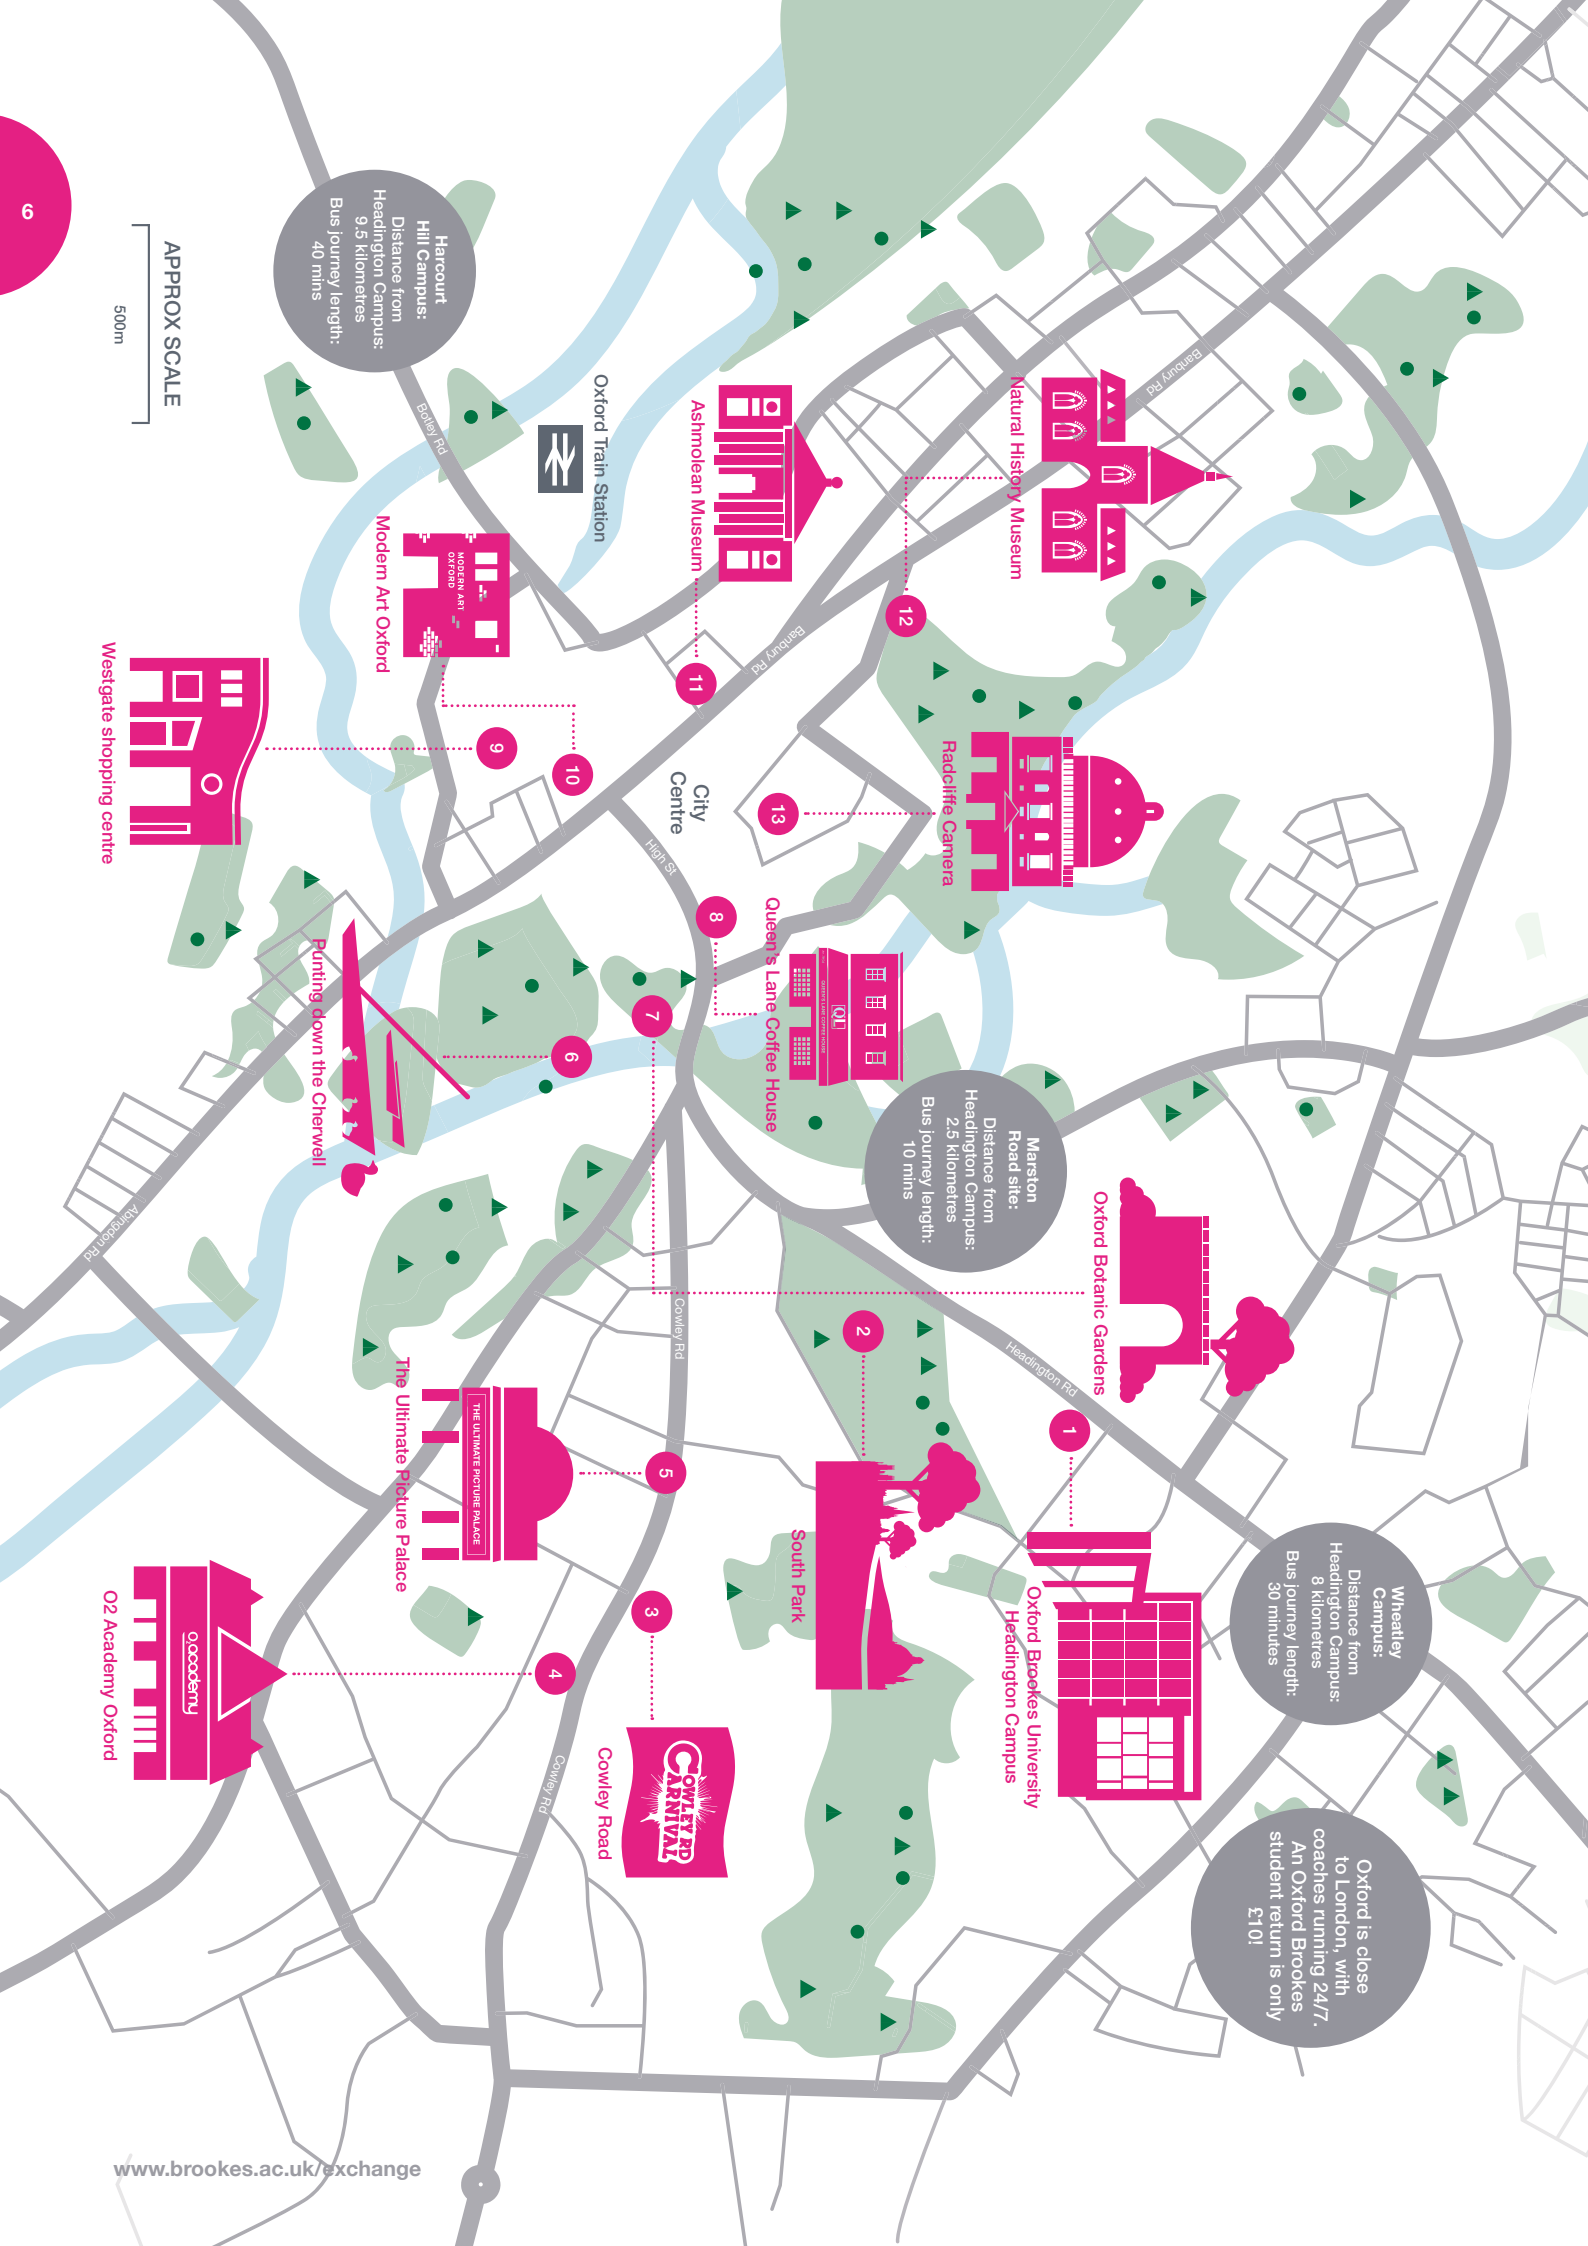

From dinosaur skeletons to shrunken heads – these museums are free to enter and hold more than 5 million specimens!

13. Radcliffe Camera

One of Oxford's most photographed landmarks, the area around here will have you feeling like you've stepped back in time.

Find all of these on the Oxford map on the next page ...

21st century teaching and learning

Our campus facilities bring together library and teaching spaces with social learning areas, the Brookes Union and student support.

Our inspirational study spaces have been designed to offer flexibility and choice to suit the way you learn best – whether through lectures, discussions, debate or quiet study.

Each of our campuses offer a vibrant mix of learning spaces and specialist facilities, including workshops, labs and studios.

Teaching Excellence

Brookes lecturers ignite a passion for their subject – you will enjoy learning that fuels your enthusiasm and imagination.

Our teaching staff are renowned for their friendly and supportive approach.

You will learn from the best. Many of our academics are world leaders in their field and are regularly recognised for the commitment they show to their students and subject.

The way we teach

Teaching is offered through a wide range of methods combining the best of both traditional and progressive styles:

Lectures are for large groups of students, often in formal lecture theatres, where you will receive a presentation on a specific subject.

Seminars are in smaller groups and allow greater interaction between teachers and fellow students.

Tutorials are informal sessions, often one-to-one with your tutor.

Practicals apply to science, technology and vocational subjects.

IT services and Brookes Virtual include:

- computers available 24/7 and laptop loan
- free Wi-Fi so you can study using mobile devices
- computer service desk open daily.

Supporting your student journey

Starting university is exciting but also a time of great change. You may well be living independently for the first time and learning to balance your new lifestyle with your studies, so we've made it as easy as possible for you to access a wide range of support and advice.

International Student Advice Team (ISAT)

Our specialist team for international students can advise you on visas and immigration before you arrive here and throughout your time at Oxford Brookes. The team organises social events for international students including a welcome programme and day trips to UK cities and famous places.

Our Global Buddies programme provides a friendly welcome for international students, putting you in touch with current UK students to help you settle into Oxford life.

CHOOSING MODULES FOR YOUR COURSE

- Our courses are broken down into equal-sized study units known as modules. Each module consists of teaching support, private study and assessment.
- You will normally select four single modules per semester or equivalent. Double modules can also be taken; however some can last a full academic year, so these are not available if you are only studying for one semester.
- A Language module can be added to your programme as a 5th module. There will be no additional charge for this module for Study Abroad (fee-paying) students.
- Formal teaching is usually around 3 hours a week in subjects like humanities and social sciences, and 6 hours a week in science and technology and some vocational subjects.
- Generally teaching takes place during the first 12 weeks. For the rest of the semester you will complete all the relevant assessments; this can include coursework or examinations.
- There are two semesters per academic year.
- The first semester is from September to December. The second semester is from January to May

GAINING CREDIT FOR YOUR STUDIES AT OXFORD BROOKES

All credits gained whilst studying can be transferred to your home university degree. You will earn either UK CATS (Credit Accumulation and Transfer Scheme) credits or European ECTS (European Credit Transfer System) credits.

Oxford Brookes modules	CATS credits	ECTS credits
1 single module	15	7.5
1 double module	30	15
1 semester's workload (4 modules)	60	30
1 semester's workload (8 modules)	120	60

* Architecture is not open to students wishing to study at Oxford Brookes University for one semester only

English Language courses

You can take our University English (pre-sessional) course before, or as part of, a study abroad programme.

This course will improve your English language skills for any of our courses. It will familiarise you with university life, our study facilities and teaching methods before starting your main programme.

The course includes:

- academic reading
- academic writing
- academic listening and speaking
- study and research skills

The use of authentic materials in the classroom will develop your knowledge and understanding of studying at university level and also of British life and culture.

We offer 6 or 12 week courses. Please contact the study abroad and exchanges team if you would like advice on the most suitable course length for you.

There may be an additional charge for University English courses. See page 15.

KEY FACTS

- i If you are continuing your studies here, you will not need to take another external English language examination to meet the language requirements of your next course
- i Our core class sizes are kept small so you get the attention you need
- i As a University English student you are an integral part of our student community
- i You will be taught by high-quality teaching staff and supported by your own personal academic adviser.
- i The course length will be tailored to suit your needs.

What are your options

If you need IELTS 6.0 with 6.0 in reading and writing, 5.5 in speaking and listening (the requirement for most of our study abroad or exchange programmes at Oxford Brookes):

Your current IELTS	1st Semester	2nd Semester	Start dates
IELTS 4.5-5.0	University English	University English	September (12 week course)
IELTS 5.0-6.0 and GPA 2.8	University English	Undergraduate academic subjects*	June (12 week course) July (6 week course) September (12 week course)
IELTS 6.0+ and GPA 2.8	Undergraduate academic subjects*	Undergraduate academic subjects*	September

*The length of courses in this table is intended as a guide, but may vary.

FORMULA STUDENT TEAM

Oxford Brookes Racing (OBR), the award-winning Formula Student team from Oxford Brookes University, is open to any Oxford Brookes students wanting to get involved. It doesn't make a difference what year you're in, or even what you're studying – it doesn't need to be engineering! If you're passionate about racing you can get involved!

Oxford Brookes Racing finished 1st in the UK and 2nd in the world in the 2019 Formula Student competitions.

Life at Brookes: where you will live

Students coming to Oxford Brookes on exchange or study abroad programmes can apply to live in our university halls of residence. Living in halls is a great way to be part of university life, meet new people and experience life in the UK.

Living in halls

- Guaranteed accommodation – just apply by the deadline
- Self-catered flats – cook with your flatmates in the communal kitchens
- Less hassle – utility bills and contents insurance included
- Flexible payments – you can pay in instalments at no extra cost
- All of our halls are on a BROOKESbus route and students living in halls can purchase a discounted bus pass which entitles you to free travel on these services
- A welcoming community – our residence team are on site 24/7 and put on social events and activities around the year to help you settle in

“As an international student, when I left home I felt a little overwhelmed but living in halls helped me feel part of the community. I met a lot of new people from different cultures and countries and I’m still in touch with many of them.”

Fees and living costs

Studying at Oxford Brookes for 1 semester or a full academic year is a great investment in your future.

Study abroad

If you are applying through one of our overseas representatives or a partner institution, for example your current college, there may be a package which includes tuition, accommodation and additional benefits. The institution you are applying through can supply you with the most up-to-date fees.

If you are applying independently, the table shows the fees that apply for pre-sessional and undergraduate courses. If you are a postgraduate student and are interested in the study abroad programme please contact the study abroad and exchanges office.

Exchange (International and Erasmus+)

If applicable, tuition fees are paid through your home institution. You will normally have to pay accommodation fees (see tuition fees table) and other expenses such as travel and food. For a list of our exchange partners visit: www.brookes.ac.uk/exchange/partners

Financial aid

If you are from the USA you may be able to use your Federal Financial Aid towards the cost of our study abroad programme as we are registered with the US Department of Education (registration number G20879). Please check with your home institution.

Living in Oxford

The amount of money you will need for living costs will depend on your course and individual level of spending. The UK Visas and Immigration service recommends you have at least £1,015 per month for living costs when studying outside of London. Living costs will vary significantly from student to student, so you should think realistically about what you spend.

How to apply

We welcome applicants from all countries with a wide range of international qualifications. We are happy to look into all applications on an individual basis, because if you are interested in coming then we are interested in finding out about you. We are here to make sure your studies get off to the right start.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

To apply for our exchange and study abroad programmes you will need to meet our academic, and English language requirements (if English is not your first language).

Academic requirements

You should have completed at least one year of university studies, have a good academic record and a GPA of 2.8 (on a 4.0 scale) or equivalent.

English language requirements

If you are not a native speaker of English, please ensure that you meet our English language requirements of IELTS 6.0 (with 6.0 in reading and writing and 5.5 in listening and speaking) or equivalent.

If you do not meet our English language requirements we offer a pre-sessional University English course (see page 11), which will help you reach the required level.

EXCHANGE PROGRAMME

If you are studying at one of our partner universities you can come to Oxford Brookes as an exchange student. If you are a European student this will usually be through the Erasmus+ scheme.

We have exchange agreements with around 150 institutions worldwide.

APPLICATION PROCESS

You will need to provide the following supporting documents:

- a copy of your passport
- evidence of your English language qualifications (if English is not your first language)
- an academic transcript and an official translation (if this is not in English) which shows evidence of your background in the chosen subject(s).

If you are an exchange student, you should contact the International Office in your home university for application information and a list of required supporting documents.

ENGLISH LANGUAGE REQUIREMENTS FOR VISAS

If you need a student visa there's a range of qualifications we can accept as evidence of your English language level. If you are from a country that the UK Visas and Immigration (UKVI) considers to be majority English speaking, then you will not have to prove your English language level for visa purposes.

If you are applying for our University English courses you must take a UKVI approved SELT test.

For more information about entry requirements, exchange programmes, application process or English language requirements for visas please visit our website for the most up to date information: www.brookes.ac.uk/exchange
