The Allott Papers

Reference Code: IE 2135 P27
Title: The Allott Papers
Dates of Creation: 1782-1998
Level of Description: Fonds
Extent and Medium: 11 boxes (292 files)

CONTEXT

Name of Creator: The Allott family, and the related families of Odell (Power), Morony (Molony) and Lloyd (Peirce, Locke).

Biographical History: Odellville was built in the 1770s by John Fitzcharles Odell and passed to the Moronys through the marriage of Helen Mary Odell to Edmund Morony in 1860. Their elder daughter, Eliza Helena, married in 1884 her cousin, Henry Vereker Lloyd Morony, while the younger daughter, Geraldine, married Henry Molony in 1889. On the death of Henry Vereker, the property passed to his only child, Helen Mary Matilda Morony, who married Edward Locke Lloyd of Heathfield, county Limerick, in 1917. Their daughter, Helen Lucia Lloyd, married in 1945 Michael Allott of Dublin and on the death of her father in 1963 the Odellville property passed to the Allotts. The Allotts operated a dairy farm on the estate and were founders of the Munster Herd of British Friesians in 1945. They were also active members of the National Farmers Association (later the Irish Farmers Association), their local co-operative creamery committee at Glenwilliam, and later the Golden Vale Cooperative Creamery Ltd.

Archival History: Unknown.

Immediate Source of Acquisition: Most of the material was donated to the University of Limerick Special Collections on 10 December 2008 by Norman Allott, second son of Michael and Helen Allott. P27/282-285 were purchased on 29 August 2008, and P27/286 on 19 September 2008, by Special Collections Librarian Ken Bergin on behalf of the University of Limerick from Alan Warnock Books, Dublin. Alan Warnock Books are understood to have acquired the items from the Allott family at the time of the sale of the Odellville property following the death of Helen Allott in 2008.

CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

Scope and Content: The material consists of leases, mortgages, conveyances, marriage settlements and wills relating to the families of Odell (1782-1891), Morony (1831-1937), Lloyd (1829-1965) and Allott (1947-1999). Of particular interest are the copy will and other items relating to Helen Sophia Chenevix (1890-1963), General Secretary of the Irish Women Workers' Union (1955-1957), member of the Irish Trade Union Congress executive committee (1946-1956), and one of the first female graduates of Trinity College, Dublin (see P27/ 83, 87-89 and 104). There are also extensive records relating to the dairy farm managed at Odellville from 1945 to 1994, including stock breeding and sales records, milk records and farm accounts. There is some architectural material relating to improvements carried out at Odellville between 1880 and 1900. There are also nineteenth-century scrapbooks and other items of Quaker interest relating to the Watson and Webb families.

Appraisal, Destruction and Scheduling Information: All records have been retained.

Accruals: No accruals are expected.

System of Arrangement: The material is arranged into three series. The first series comprises in the main leases, mortgages, marriage settlements and wills which map out the succession of the Odellville property from its original owners to the Allott family. The second series comprises farm and household records documenting the management of the dairy farm operated by Michael and Helen Allott at Odellville between 1945 and 1994. The third series comprises mainly items of Quaker interest and some photographic material relating to the Morony family.

CONDITIONS OF ACCESS AND USE

Conditions Governing Access: Unrestricted access to most items. Twenty-four files contain information of private or sensitive nature and access to them is restricted until 2040. These items have been identified in the descriptive catalogue.

Conditions Governing Reproduction: Reproduction of the material is permitted, except for items dated after 1979 containing personal information.

Language/ Scripts of Material: English, Latin.

Physical characteristics: Paper documents, mainly in good condition. Some fragile items require conservation treatment and are not available for consultation. These items have been identified in the descriptive catalogue.

Finding Aids: A hard copy of the descriptive catalogue is available at the University of Limerick Special Collections.

ALLIED MATERIALS

Related Units of Description: Items donated by Helen Allott relating to the Morony family are available in the National Archives Private Accessions 1961-1981 collection <http://www.nationalarchives.ie/PDF/PrivateAccessions1961-1988.pdf>. A small number of items, mainly correspondence relating to Henry Vereker Morony, can also be found at Limerick City Museum <http://www.limerick.ie/WebApps/Museum/Museum.aspx>. For related material remaining in private hands, see P27/ 118.

- 282 1866 Hardcover notebook bearing the bookplate of Joseph Dollard on the inside cover, and embossed on the first page 'Emilie M. Watson, Mountmellick, 1866'. The Watsons were a Quaker family of Mountmellick, a centre of Irish Quakerism in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. The book contains short essays in clear handwriting with titles presented in ornate calligraphy. Contents include a table listing the gravities of chemical elements; a note on triangles with illustrations; distances of planets from the sun; list of the signs of the zodiac; genealogical tables relating to the royal family; map of Ireland with related topographical and geographical notes; notes on mythology; the role of the resultant in mechanics; phrenology; barometers and thermometers; wind and rain; phosphorus; the empire of Alexander the Great; ancient Greece; classification of mankind; figures of speech; and on mammals, reptiles, insects, fish, and leaves. Between the essays are ornate pages containing sayings and quotations. At the end of the book, in reverse, is a long poem of religious nature entitled The Three Rocks, attributed to 'Nannie' Webb. For 'Nannie' Webb, also see 283.
- 118 pp
- 283 1834-1919 Soft cover notebook with handwritten poems attributed to the Webb family. In addition to poems, the book contains an essay written in 1893 by Deborah Webb describing holidays in Kilkee 51 years earlier. Inserted between the pages are 40 loose inserts of mainly handwritten or printed poems, some of them unattributed. One of these poems is entitled 'Walt Whitman in Killarney'. Also inserted is a bound set of autographs of guests at the Golden Wedding anniversary of Thomas and Mary Webb celebrated at 56 Kenilworth Square, Dublin, in 1883.
- 42 items
- 284 Undated A 72-page notebook marked 'Receipts' on the front cover. The book contains handwritten and gummed-in printed remedies for both farm livestock and persons. There are maintenance hints and directions for gardens, farmyards, houses and furniture. Inserted between the pages are two printed notes relating to the activities of a book club, a press cutting for a cure for cholera, and a sheet of blotting paper.
