Some departments require a B2 level or higher. Only the Institute of French as a Foreign Language (i-FLE) accepts beginners in their program. Students planning to enroll in other faculties must provide proof of proficiency in French: either a certificate by the French department at their home university or an official French language test/certificate (DELF, DALF, TCF). Since French embassies and consulates are now increasingly demanding proof of proficiency in French, students will need to verify the requirements when applying for their visa.
Academic Offer	Students' faculty of choice will depend on the agreements between their home university and Nantes Université. Students are required to take at least 70% of the classes in a Faculty that has signed an agreement with their home university. Students will be able to choose classes directly from our Incoming Exchange Students online class catalog.

French Support Classes for Exchange Students	Support classes are offered free of charge for exchange students and take place twice a week during the evening, usually from 6pm to 8pm. However, these classes aren't available for students enrolled in French semester courses at i-FLE. French Support classes allow students to receive up to 4 ECTS credits (2 for the oral and 2 for the written proficiency class). Students interested in taking French support classes must request them via the Mobility Online application.
