

International Exchange 2023-2024

Welcome to the Department of Political Science at Stockholm University!

As one of the largest universities in Sweden, with over 60.000 undergraduate and master's students, Stockholm University offers unique access to teaching and research facilities. Stockholm University, located in Sweden's capital city, is the region's center for higher education and research in humanities, law, the natural sciences and the social sciences, and a focal point for the work of leading international researchers. Located in the heart of Sweden's only natural urban park, the University is surrounded by natural beauty, while being only a few minutes journey from the city center.

Rent: 4 200

Food: 2 200

Local travel: 650

Miscellaneous: 2 000

Total: 9 000 SEK (Roughly 10 SEK=1 EUR) This is an estimate and can vary greatly.

Academics

Course catalogue

su.se/coursecatalogue

Students will be contacted with a list of courses offered, along with a course registration form (roughly in May for Autumn Semester and November for Spring Semester).

After returning the course application form, students will be pre-registered for courses and will find out which courses they have been registered for upon arrival.

Students may add/drop courses only after consulting the International Coordinator at the host and home universities.

Academic prerequisites

Students should note the prerequisites for the course(s) selected. If the prerequisites for a course are not met, the student will not be registered.

Full-time workload

Students are expected to study full-time during their exchange period at Stockholm University. Full-time studies comprises 30 credits per semester, e.g. four 7.5 credit courses during four course periods or two 15 credit courses during two periods. There are four periods in one semester.

The majority of the credits should be taken at the Dept. of Political Science.

Autumn Semester Exams

Please note that the autumn semester lasts until the middle of January. It is, therefore, important for students to plan accordingly in order to be able to attend their courses until the very end of the semester. It is generally not possible to take exams earlier. There is no official break period during the winter holidays, so students should check their class schedules before making travel plans.
