AccessCampus Homework Club

The homework club is run by AccessCampus which is a coming together of the University of Limerick and the local community (LEDP). It exists to bring out the best in all the pupils that use its services. It runs four days a week and its only goal is to help by allowing you access to the best expertise and guidance available in a state of the art room fully equipped with the most up to date computers and technology. All the facilities and guidance are available to make sure that pupils homework can be completed in a way that helps them understand better the subjects covered in school in a friendly atmosphere that brings out the best in you.

Open Forum Meeting

These meetings are co-chaired by the AccessCampus (on behalf of the local communities) and by staff from the School of Allied Health (OT, Physio, Nutrition/Dietetics and Speech & Language) on behalf of the University. Attendance is drawn from the University staff and representatives of the diverse communities served by AccessCampus. Open and floating agenda items are discussed to best explore opportunities for student placements in non-traditional community settings with the aim of improving health prospects and learning opportunities. All experiences and opinions are sought and shared in an open and informal setting. There is no set attendance list, all interested parties are welcome to attend in person or online, on the third Wednesday of the month from 3pm at AccessCampus.

Ukrainian Families with Neurodiversity Needs

Displaced since the beginning of the war in Ukraine, these families need your help, support and friendship to allow them to feel connected to the Limerick community. The PTSD of fleeing their home country has left some of these children nonverbal since the war broke out. With your help we can provide an outlet, a social circle and support network in order to make them feel welcome in Ireland.

St Saviours Drama Club

St Saviour's Community Drama Group formed in 2011 in the CIE club as a pilot community drama group with six members and no expectations. Eight years later St. Saviours have emerged as one of Limerick's most active Community Drama Groups, with 12 previous sell-out shows under their belt, two short films and a STAR Award nomination.
