

URBAN EXCURSION

THE CELTIC CAPITAL: DISCOVERING DUBLIN

Ready to 'Discover Dublin'?! You will embark on a thrilling journey through the vibrant streets of Dublin, the heart and soul of Ireland. Grab your closest friends and get ready for your free day in the city to soak up the electric atmosphere of the 'Celtic Capital'.

As you step into the capital of Ireland, prepare to be dazzled by the countless sights and experiences that await you. From the iconic landmarks to the hidden gems tucked away in its charming alleys, this city has it all.

But let's remember that our time here is not just about checking off a list of must-see attractions. It's about immersing ourselves in the urban culture of the city, creating lasting memories with friends, and embracing the spirit of adventure.

So, roam the cobblestone streets, discover cozy cafés, mingle with the locals, and let Dublin's irresistible charm enchant you at every turn. Get ready to create stories that will be cherished for a lifetime. Dublin, here we come!

Nice Places To Get Breakfast:

- 1 Brother Hubbard: Known for its delicious brunch and specialty coffee.
- 2 Queen of Tarts: Offers a wide range of breakfast pastries, cakes, and traditional Irish breakfast.
- 3 Two Pups Coffee: A cozy café serving excellent coffee and a variety of breakfast options.
- 4 Meet Me in the Morning: Offers a unique breakfast menu with fresh and seasonal ingredients.
- 5 The Fumbally: A trendy spot known for its wholesome breakfast dishes and vibrant atmosphere.

Nice Places To Get Lunch:

- 1 Avoca: A popular café and store that offers a diverse range of salads, sandwiches, and hot dishes.
- 2 Fallon & Byrne: An upscale food emporium with a café, deli, and wine cellar, serving gourmet lunch options.
- 3 KC Peaches: Offers healthy and flavorful lunch options, including salads, wraps, and hot dishes.
- 4 The Market Bar: A lively tapas bar with an extensive menu and a vibrant atmosphere.
- 5 Cornucopia: A vegetarian and vegan restaurant with a diverse lunch menu of salads, soups, and main dishes.

Nice Places To Get Dinner:

- 1 Fade Street Social: Offers a stylish dining experience with a menu featuring modern Irish cuisine.
- 2 The Winding Stair: Known for its delicious seafood and a wide range of Irish dishes, with stunning views of the River Liffey.
- 3 Forest Avenue: A fine dining restaurant offering a seasonal tasting menu that focuses on local ingredients.
- 4 The Vintage Kitchen: A cozy restaurant with a daily changing menu, featuring dishes made from locally sourced ingredients.
- 5 The Pig's Ear: Offers a contemporary take on traditional Irish cuisine in a cozy setting.

Free Things To Do:

- 1 Visit the National Museum of Ireland: Explore the rich history and culture of Ireland with free admission.
- 2 Stroll through Phoenix Park: Enjoy the vast green space, spot wildlife, and visit the residence of the President of Ireland.
- 3 Explore Temple Bar: Wander through the lively streets, browse art galleries, and soak up the vibrant atmosphere.
- 4 Visit Trinity College: Take a walk through the historic campus, see the Book of Kells, and admire the beautiful architecture.
- 5 Wander along the Ha'penny Bridge: Cross the iconic bridge and enjoy the scenic views of the River Liffey.

Paid Things To Do:

- 1 Take a tour of the Guinness Storehouse: Learn about the history of Guinness and enjoy a pint with panoramic views of the city.
- 2 Visit the Jameson Distillery: Take a guided tour to learn about Irish whiskey-making and enjoy tastings.
- 3 Explore Dublin Castle: Take a tour of the castle's historical rooms and learn about Ireland's past.

Not To Be Missed:

- 1 Visit the Book of Kells at Trinity College: Admire this beautifully illustrated manuscript, dating back to the 9th century.
- 2 Explore the Temple Bar neighbourhood: Experience the lively atmosphere, traditional pubs, and cultural events.
- 3 Take a walk along the River Liffey: Enjoy the scenic views, iconic bridges, and bustling quayside.
- 4 Visit the Dublin Zoo: Spend a day at one of the oldest and most popular zoos in Europe, located in Phoenix Park.