Get Involved at UWEC!

Buddy Program

The Buddy Program, through the Center for International Education (CIE), pairs domestic and current international students (buddies) at UW-Eau Claire with incoming international students. The goal is to build intercultural relationships with a student familiar with UWEC and U.S. culture. This program is voluntary, and new students are given the opportunity to sign up at orientation. Students will be matched with their buddy within the first two weeks of classes.

Student Organizations

Involvement in campus organizations is an important part of the university's total education program. These groups offer social and service opportunities for their members, the university, and the community at large. Membership can broaden acquaintances, develop leadership ability, build decision-making and problem-solving skills, and complement classroom instruction.
