Karlsruhe University of Education

Welcome to Karlsruhe University of Education! It is a university that specializes in educational processes in various institutional, social and cultural contexts.

The university was established in its present-day form in 1962. However, the start of teacher training in Karlsruhe can be traced back to 1757. With around 3,700 students and 180 full-time researchers and lecturers as well as 90 administrative staff, Karlsruhe University of Education represents an important center for educational research in the region of Baden-Württemberg. The University's distinctive profile is characterized by its focus on multilingual education, bilingual teaching and learning, dealing with diversity and inequality as well as MINT subjects, such as Mathematics, Informatics, Natural Sciences and Technology (related to educational processes). Furthermore, research, teaching and practice are closely integrated at Karlsruhe University of Education. The university offers the possibility to receive a doctorate as well as to qualify as a professor in educational as well as subject related research. A recently established Institute for Education Related Research Methods additionally fosters research at our university.

Welcome to Karlsruhe University of Education

“Karlsruhe University of Education is an internationally friendly university where you will be inspired how to be a professional educator. It’s also where I’ve discovered my interest, passion and dream to be a children book writer!”

CHRISTINE YIP, EXCHANGE STUDENT, HONG KONG

Well Connected with Other Universities

Karlsruhe University of Education is well connected within the region and especially with other universities in town, such as the KIT, the Karlsruhe Institute of Technology (collaboration in MINT subjects) and with the Karlsruhe University of Arts and Design, the State Academy of Fine Arts Karlsruhe as well as the University of Music (collaboration with the Institute of Art).

The University fosters close relations with partner universities in many other countries and offers exchange opportunities for students, lecturers, researchers as well as university administrative staff.

The University’s main campus is located in the centre of Karlsruhe. All other universities in Karlsruhe are within cycling distance of the University of Education, which helps to facilitate a connection with a lot of students and enables them to attend many student based events and other cultural as well as social events within the city of Karlsruhe.

Live in a Cultural and Technological Hotspot!

Karlsruhe is an open and tolerant, pleasant, green city in southwest Germany, at the edge of the Black Forest. Situated on the river Rhine and near the French border, it is also known for being one of Germany's sunniest cities.

From the Palace Gardens to the many theatres and museums, from the cinemas to the lively pub scene, Karlsruhe offers a wide range of cultural and leisurely activities. The city is especially renowned for its Center for Art and Media (ZKM), a museum "founded in 1989 with the mission of continuing the classical arts into the digital age". The festival "Das Fest" encompasses everything to do with music and culture in the month July. During the "Fest-weekend" up to 250,000 visitors enjoy music from German artists as well as internationally noted artists on four different stages.

With its nine universities and twenty-six research institutes, the city is one of Germany's major research locations. Universities and research institutes are additionally part of the Karlsruhe Technology Region, an Action Group established to strengthen and promote the entire region as a hub for business, science and innovation with the focus on mobility, energy and IT.

Enjoy the Laser Light Show at the Castle - every year during the summer!

Karlsruhe has an excellent public transport system and is also one of the most bike-friendly cities in Germany. Furthermore the city is conveniently located, close to major German and European cities such as Frankfurt, Heidelberg, Stuttgart and Freiburg (within one hour); Bâle (Basel) and Strasbourg within two hours. Munich, Paris and Zürich can be reached within three hours.

Facts and Figures

- ▶ about 300,000 inhabitants
- ▶ nine universities in town with about 43,000 students in total
- ▶ 26 research institutes
- ▶ the seat of important federal government institutions

Traditional Christmas Market in Karlsruhe

"The combination of a small but active city, exceptional student support and facilities provided by the University of Education makes Karlsruhe a worthwhile Erasmus destination. Totally recommend it!"

I would motivate any student to choose this institution for a semester abroad.”

ZANDER JENSE VAN RENSBURG, SOUTH AFRICA

Practice Teaching in a German School

Upon request we are able to offer exchange students opportunities to observe and/or teach lessons at German primary or secondary schools (in German or in English). Practice teaching will be supervised by a mentor and credits will be awarded upon successful completion of the internship.

Tandem Programme

In order to get in touch with local students from our university and to improve your language skills outside the official lessons, you can sign-up for our language tandem programme, which starts each semester at the beginning of the official lecture period.

Courses Taught in English

Each semester the University of Education offers a new course catalogue with ever-changing courses taught in English. The courses are either provided by the English Department or are in cooperation with another field such as history or media studies. Please contact us for an up-to-date list.

The Language Learning Center (LLC)

At the LLC you have a choice of interesting courses in German and English as well as other languages such as French, Arabic and Spanish. Courses are free of charge and vary each semester. Plus, students have the opportunity for self-regulated foreign language learning during the open access hours of the LLC.
